

TOWNSHIP THEATRE GROUP'S TOURING COMPANY
ANNOUNCES ITS SIXTEENTH SEASON

MAKING ADJUSTMENTS

The Program: a collection of lighthearted pieces illustrating our theme.

Part one is a trio of short comedies by Long Island author Linda Delmonico Prussen.

Some Assembly Required Prefab furniture and relationships both need to be put together but only the former comes in a box with directions.

Just Desserts A husband fails to predict his wife's reactions.

There's an App for That A group of friends discover that taking advice from a smart phone Life Coach may not be so smart.

Part Two is a one-act comedy by Laura Pedersen, an award-winning author of books, plays and material for several well-known comedians.

Living Arrangements Lois and Charlie, a long-married couple, have decided to divorce. It would be insane to give up a rent-controlled Manhattan apartment so they are attempting to live as housemates.

Sunday, Nov. 12 2:30 pm

Sunday, Nov. 19 1:30 pm

Saturday, Jan. 20 2:00 pm

Sunday, Jan. 28 2:00 pm

Lindenhurst Library

Deer Park Library

Wantagh Library

Commack Library

Programs are free but check with the libraries to see if reservations are needed.